

arts culture

OCTOBER 2013

ARTSANDCULTURETX.COM

anniversary with its own Raid the Icebox-style artistic intervention; in this case, artists will raid PRH archives and use their findings to inspire their site-specific installations. Round 39 includes Houston based artists Jamal Cyrus in collaboration with Ray Carrington Jr., Troy Gooden, Lovie Olivia; and New York based artists Valerie Piraino and Jessica Vaughn. Oct. 5-March 2, Project Row Houses, projectrowhouses.org.

Texas Contemporary

In the art fair's third iteration, Texas galleries Anya Tish Gallery, Art Palace, Avis Frank, Barbara Davis Gallery, David Shelton Gallery, Devin Borden Gallery, Inman Gallery, McClain Gallery, Moody Gallery, Rice University Art Gallery, Sicardi Gallery, Texas Gallery and Zoya Tommy Contemporary (Houston); DUTTON and Lora Reynolds Gallery (Austin); and William Campbell Contemporary Art (Fort Worth) will be joined by about 60 mostly U.S.-based galleries. The opening-night party will benefit the Contemporary Francesca Fuchs, (Re)Collection: Paintings of Framed Paintings, Drawings, Prints and Photos Beautifully painted in washed-out tones and quivering brushstrokes, the series has developed into a powerful meditation on how the art painters live with becomes part of them. The installation, which fills a long wall with pictures hung three or four high, seals the triumph of one of the best painting shows in Houston this year. Last chance: Through Oct. 12, Texas Gallery, texgal.com.

Rachel Hecker: Group Show

Art League Houston's 2013 Texas Artist of the Year describes her celebratory exhibition as "largely a collection of anomalies" given her tendency to "make things that have nothing to do with what I am doing" alongside ongoing investigations. Through Nov. 15, Art League Houston, artleaguehouston.org.